Does Hollywood Ever Get It Right?

"My second career is going to the movies." Our speaker, Mike Canning, has long been fascinated by Hollywood's foibles, making his first visit to the "flickers" in Fargo, North Dakota, at the precocious age of four, hence inspiring this second career — going to the movies. His recent book, Hollywood on the

Mike Canning

Potomac, offers the first comprehensive look at the intersection of the capital city and the movies. In examining more than 50 motion pictures, he reveals how Washington, D.C. has been treated as subject, setting, or background in American feature films. Beyond Washington's tourist-friendly monuments and museums, he opens up a world exposed by moviedom's love-hate relationship with this city.

From the idealism of Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, to the sharp wit of Born Yesterday, to the paranoia of Seven Days in May, and to the "goofs" of location as seen in No Way Out and many other films, Hollywood's visual images make an impact on all of us, for good or bad. Mr. Canning will tell us much about the treatment and mistreatment of our city in films by showing us film clips to illustrate his points.

In his first life, Mr. Canning was a Foreign Service Officer for 28 years, working as a press and cultural officer in eight countries and four continents. A movie reviewer for the Hill Rag

Attend the LLI Information Fair on May 1

Let's do it! Plan to come early to attend the LLI "Information Fair," to be held just prior to the May 1 Forum (9 a.m.-10 a.m.) and again immediately after the Forum. Talk with representatives of Special Interest Groups and Committees to see what they are doing and what they are planning for the future. Bring a guest — a friend, neighbor, or family member — and earn a raffle ticket for a chance to win a lovely gift basket or a paid parking ticket for the day. Members who have joined LLI since Aug 2012 are eligible for a raffle ticket just for showing up. Detailed information about additional ways to become eligible to win may be found in the April 2013 newsletter. Drawings will be after the Forum. Remember, you must be present to win!

He and his wife live on Capitol Hill surrounded by many of the scenes he writes about. Copies of his book will be available for purchase at the Forum.

Please Note: Parking is in parking garage ($2/hour). Parking in B and C lots is by permit only. If no garage parking slots are available, a $12 daily permit for the B lot is available at the office to the right just inside the entry gate.

Study Travel 2014

The LLI travelers will be sailing the blue Danube from Bucharest to Budapest in June. Anyone interested might be able to secure a cabin if they act quickly. Contact Terry Brittain, 703-425-8240, for further information.

Over the last couple of months LLI members have been making the difficult decision of selecting a destination for our 2014 trip. After much discussion, Grand Circle Travel's (GCT) Northwest National Parks has been selected as our primary trip. Negotiations with GCT have begun and we hope to have prices and dates available soon. If you think you might be interested in this tour, information for 2013 can be found at www.gct.com, then search under North American land tours.

President's Message

This year I have tried to focus the President's Messages on the many ways you can become involved in LLI and to describe the various activities and interests that LLI has to offer and that enable the organization to operate. I began the year discussing the new Board members and thanking those members who "retired" for their voluntary service. I then explained how the Forum works, how the Special Interest Groups work, how the Curriculum Committee works, and even how the Trip Committee works. Last month I talked about how the Scholarship Program works. In each case, I tried to outline how those activities perform and to recognize the people doing the work that enables these programs to function. As you can see, there are a lot of volunteers who do a lot to make LLI the great organization that it is.

Question: Did you see your name? Were you mentioned in any of the articles?

Paying your dues is not enough. LLI has one Part-Time paid contractor. Everything Else must be done by volunteers. Everyone else who contributes to making our organization run is a volunteer. We have volunteers who help with class registrations, develop the newsletters and course catalogs, and handle the mailings of both of these items. We have a number of people who volunteer as course coordinators to assist our instructors during their classes and others who volunteer to serve as instructors for many of our classes. Our web site (<http://lli.nova.org>) is run by only one volunteer. And we have several volunteers who assist in our office when times get busy. We have volunteers who keep our financial books in order and volunteers who audit the books to see that we are doing it correctly. We have volunteers who send out sympathy and get well cards and who survey members to determine the interests of the membership. One volunteer publicizes our activities in newspapers and other publications serving our communities. We have volunteers who put together our outstanding holiday party, our spring picnic, and our wonderful poetry party. Volunteers are responsible for the Forum speakers, greeters, and refreshments during those Forums. Volunteers are a part of everything we do in LLI. We even have a volunteer to keep up with the volunteers!

But the question remains: "Did you volunteer for any of these activities? Were you a member of a volunteer team?" An organization such as ours can only be as strong and relevant as the membership makes us. You are LLI. Your efforts and talents are needed. Don't wait to be asked, volunteer. Let your name be counted as a contributor. Step up and be a full member of a super organization.

Community Outreach

Betty Lee Thatcher 703-354-8154
Carol Weber, caroljeanweber@hotmail.com

Annandale Christian Community for Action (ACCA) will be the recipient of our food collection for May. ACCA has been serving families in need in the Annandale/Bailey's Crossroads area for 45 years. A coalition of 26 churches collaborates to operate ACCA programs which, in addition to the food pantry, include furniture distribution, emergency financial assistance for families in crisis, and transportation to medical appointments. ACCA also supports scholarships for students with disabilities, Rebuilding Together, CROP Walk, and Meals on Wheels. The ACCA Child Development Center (CDC) provides developmental childcare and early education. ACCA is run totally by volunteers, numbering over 700, except for the staff of the CDC.

Current food pantry needs include: cereal, spaghetti sauce, canned fruit, tomato paste, crackers, toilet paper and bars of soap. Of course, any non-perishable food that you have on hand would be greatly appreciated. Betty Lee Thatcher or Carol Weber will deliver the food this month.

A big thank you for the generous donations received in April for FACETS. Several helpers were needed to move everything down to the curb!

LLI June Elections

LLI holds elections annually during the June Forum to replace those board members whose 3-year terms expire and who do not wish to continue their service. The election also replaces the four officers (President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer) whose 1-year terms expire. To this end, LLI's President appoints a Nominating Chair who then chooses a committee consisting of two board members and two non-board members. A slate of candidates is then presented for members' approval.

This year's candidates are:

Officer Positions:

President: Ed McKnight
Vice President: George Chalou
Secretary: Karren Scott
Treasurer: Chuck Hulick

Board Membership, 2013

Nancy Jerdan
Phil Myers
Scott Pinckney
Arline Sachs
Gina Trapp

Short biographies of these individuals are provided below:

President — Ed McKnight

Ed currently serves as President of the Board of Directors. He has served as Vice President and Chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee. He is also a member of the Curriculum and Scholarship Committees and previously served as Board representative for the Special Interest Groups, as class coordinator for many classes, and as instructor for several classes. He enjoys exercising, gardening, reading, travel, and LLI.

Vice-President — George Chalou

George has belonged to LLI since 2008 and enjoyed the many opportunities of the organization. He feels that serving on the board of Directors is a way of providing for the future health of the organization. As a Board member for the past three years, George has provided guidance on the records of the organization — especially on the disposition of temporary records. He has also been an active member of the Forum Committee for the past four years and has very much enjoyed working with fellow committee members to bring enlightening topics to the general membership. George received a Ph.D. from Indiana University and then taught American history at The Ohio State University. Retiring from the National Archives after 28 years, he consulted for the United States Court of Military Appeals, the highest court for all United States uniformed personnel. In connection with the Court, his last publication, A Pioneering Effort in Television: The United States Court of Military Appeals, appeared in the 2006 issue of The Federal Lawyer. George is currently doing research on United States — China relations during WWII.

Treasurer — Chuck Hulick

Chuck has been a member of LLI since 2009, and has served as Vice President and Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee. He is a longtime member of the Pennsylvania Railroad Historical Society and a sailboat enthusiast.

Secretary — Karren Scott

Karren joined LLI in 2006 after a career with the U.S. intelligence community. She has previously served as Secretary of the LLI Board of Directors and has chaired both the Administrative Review Committee and the Audit Committee. Growing up in a military family, Karren lived in eleven different states and four foreign countries before happily putting down roots here. She holds a BA in Russian Studies from the University of Virginia and an MA in Government & National Security from Georgetown University. Karren enjoys learning about different cultures and religions, military history, and art. She also enjoys live theater and music of all kinds.

New Board Members 2013: Nancy Jerdan, Phil Myers, Scott Pinckney, Arline Sachs and Gina Trapp

Nancy Jerdan joined LLI in 2006. She served on the Picnic Committee for several years, on the Holiday Luncheon Committee for 2012, and is currently an active member of Arts and Smarts. A New York native, Nancy received a B.A. in English from the College of Mount St. Vincent and a M.S. in Library

Science from Columbia University. She worked as a librarian at Columbia University's Rare Book and Manuscript Library before moving to Virginia. Nancy was the office manager at a private special education school in Annandale for 24 years before retiring in 2006. Her interests include travel, gardening, and museum visits. She enjoys learning about art and history through LLI courses and Smithsonian Resident Associates programs.

Phil Myers "discovered" LLI at a spring 2007 National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) meeting when Laura Charron chaired the program, and joined LLI the following fall. He is currently responsible for logistics at the Forum meetings. Phil has a B.S. degree from Michigan State University in Agricultural Engineering, and a M.S. degree from Colorado State University in Civil Engineering. He retired after over 46 years of federal service, primarily with the Bureau of Reclamation in Washington and Montana (with responsibilities for the drainage of irrigated lands), and the Federal Emergency Management Agency in Washington, DC (with responsibilities in the National Flood Insurance Program). In addition to participating in LLI activities, Phil enrolls in credit classes at Northern Virginia Community College.

Scott Pinckney has been an LLI member since 2007. A native of Washington State, he holds a BA degree in Business from the University of Washington, a Masters from Auburn University, and graduated from Air University. He has lived in Fairfax since 1974. Col. Pinckney's military service was primarily in Air Force budget development and execution, Air Force Secretariat assignments in Legislative Liaison, and as the Military Assistant to the Assistant Secretary for Financial Management, with overseas assignments in Scotland, Iran and Germany. His last Air Force assignment was the Comptroller, Strategic Air Command. Following retirement in 1988, he served the next 19 years as CFO for the Armed Forces Benefit Association in Alexandria. He especially enjoys travel and golf.

Arline Sachs was an Associate Professor and taught Computer Information Systems at NVCC for over 20 years before retiring 14 years ago. Her hobby of genealogy led her to lecture all over the world. Arline has been an active member of LLI for more than 10 years and has given several genealogy classes and travelogues for LLI. She frequently participates in the trips undertaken by the LLI Study/Travel group and chaired the China trip in 2005. She has been co-host and co-producer of a genealogy TV show, "Tracing Your Family Roots" for over 18 years.

Gina Trapp joined LLI in 2004 and has been an active member ever since. She has been on the Curriculum Committee since January 2005 and has served as Chairperson for the past two years. She served as Secretary on the Board of Directors from 2006 to 2009, and was appointed to the Board again in 2012 when a position became vacant. In addition to serving as coordinator for many classes over the years, she has volunteered on several committees, including the Holiday Luncheon and Picnic Committees. Gina received a BA in English from Misericordia University in Dallas, PA, and moved to Northern Virginia shortly thereafter. She worked in the Inspector General's Office, Department of Housing and Urban Development, as a Writer/Editor for 30 years. Gina enjoys working with animals and previously volunteered at the Animal Welfare League of Arlington. She also enjoys attending various theaters throughout the area, and is an avid Boston Red Sox fan.
