Public Diplomacy: 18th Century Lessons, 21st Century Questions

Americans “rediscover” public diplomacy in wartime. Driven by the events of “9/11,” widespread anti-Americanism, and mistakes in Iraq, many Americans are turning again to an instrument of statecraft that began with Thomas Jefferson’s “decent respect for the opinions of mankind”. What is public diplomacy? Why does it matter? What are its strengths and limitations?

These are the interesting questions that Bruce Gregory, Director of George Washington University’s Public Diplomacy Institute, will discuss at the Forum meeting. Mr. Gregory also serves as an adjunct assistant professor of Media and Public Affairs at GWU. He has also taught a several other universities, the National Defense University, National War College and the Department of State’s Foreign Policy Institute.

Remember LLI’s food donation program and bring an item to donate to Annandale Christian Community for Action (ACCA). See details under “Community Outreach” elsewhere in this newsletter.

The meeting in the Forum Room on the second level of the Cultural Center will start promptly at 10:00 a.m. preceded by refreshments at 9:30 a.m. Please park in the garage by entering on the ground level from Center Drive. The hourly rate is $1.00, cash only.

Do you know how helpful and vital NVCC/NOVA at Annandale is to our LLI group? The college provides (free of charge) places of our monthly Forums, classrooms, the LLI office, plus numerous other benefits. One of the best ways we can show our appreciation is by your GENEROUS donation to the LLI Scholarship program. We plan to provide six scholarships, totaling $9,000, to students

Lunch Bunch

After the Forum meeting, Thursday, Nov. 9, join other LLI members at Lo’s Chinese Restaurant located in the Pan Am Shopping Center at 3075 Nutley St., Fairfax, VA 22031. # President's Corner

Our picnic on September 20 was a rousing success, thanks to the chairman Dick DiBuono and his outstanding committee. The weather cooperated, colorful decorations carried out the western theme and we enjoyed barbeque and all the trimmings. Most of us participated in the line dancing taught by our enthusiastic dance instructor, and a good time was had by all.

The October Forum was attended by 154 members and guests and we enjoyed another fine speaker. At this Forum 148 pounds of non-perishable foods were collected and delivered to the organization Food for Others, who in turn sent a letter of appreciation to LLI. These donations, suggested earlier this year by Jane Jones, have become a monthly program generously supported by our members and greatly appreciated by the different organizations designated to receive the donations. Many thanks to our members for contributing each month to this very worthwhile cause.

If you missed the picnic, be sure not to miss our annual Holiday Party, which will be the third event honoring LLI's tenth anniversary. Please put December 14 on your calendar and let Betty Mahon know of your interest in helping out with the preparations.

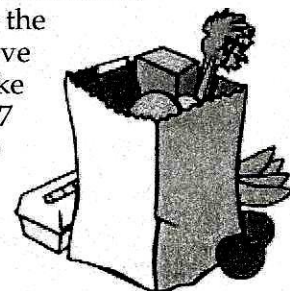

Don't forget the November Forum is on Thursday, November 9. I hope to see everyone there.

Norma Hughes

Community Outreach Food Program

Once again you came through with your generous food contributions. Next month the Annandale Christian Community for Action (ACCA) will be the beneficiary of your generosity. This organization is a coalition of 26 churches which, since 1967, has been providing emergency and critical assistance to thousands of clients. Over 700 volunteers help families and individuals in areas such as child development, transportation, counseling, shelter support, food/medical/financial emergencies, and student scholarships. Current needs include most of the staples such as rice, dried beans, cereal, canned tuna/meats, canned vegetables and fruits, 2 pound bags of sugar and flour and soap powder.

Betty Thatcher has graciously volunteered to make the delivery following the November meeting. Do you have a favorite agency you would like to be the beneficiary of our 2007 contributions? You can sign up at the November Forum or call Salli or Mary Ellen at 703-256-8001.

Who Are the Forum Volunteers?

The Forum has a long history in LLI. The first meeting was in 1996 and was envisioned as way for members socialize on a regular basis and to attract new people. We now have over 300 members and a large percentage of them attend the monthly meetings

The Forum brings us together, enlightens us about what is happening in LLI, and enriches us with expert speakers and informative topics. It takes many volunteers to put on each of the nine Forums that LLI presents each year. Throughout the year Forum Speaker Coordinator Lorin Goodrich spends countless hours searching for knowledgeable speakers to present pertinent topics—at no cost to LLI. Once speakers are engaged, Lorin assures that they arrive on time on the right day.

On the day of each Forum meeting, long before we gather at the Ernst Cultural Center, volunteers arrive to put on the show. Along with Lorin, Barry Newman is on the scene before 9 a.m. In charge of Forum set-up, he coordinates with NVCC Continuing Education, assuring that the room is set up correctly and that technical support needed by the speaker is in place and working.

Hospitality chairs Jane Jones and Bo Kelley arrange the refreshment table and check to see that the caterer has set up for coffee. Then the members who are donating refreshments arrive bearing goodies. Over 50 members have supplied baked goods and fruits this year.

Food Donation Program Chairmen Mary Ellen Firor and Salli Wise position their carts to accept the generous contributions of our membership. This year, Bonnie and Paul Hopley, Chuck and Martie Klee, Betty Mahon, Joan Pirrello, Don and Sally Reynolds, and Carol Weber have transported the collected items to several local charitable organizations.

New Membership Chairman Martha Siemering (Outgoing chairman is Colletta Hammond) organizes the membership table near the entrance. She is joined by one of her assistants who this year have included Jean Downey and Leah Porzel. They provide information to prospective members. Colletta, now Greeter Coordinator, briefs her volunteer for the day's event. This year, Ferne Beyer, Elaine Cherry, Margaret Lowery, Betty

Pogerman, Sally Reynolds, and Genevieve Thiem have stood at the entryway and greeted old and new members and guests as they arrive.

Administrator Laura Charron and Treasurer Phil Runge are on hand to take money for dues, trips, and classes. President Norma Hughes, wearing her "chapeau of the month" prepares to preside. Don Reynolds has his camera at the ready to document the affair.

The show is ready to begin.

After the meeting, John Bogart, Lunch Bunch Coordinator, and Elaine Bogart host other LLIers at an après Forum lunch. Throughout the year John conducts gustatory investigations of the moderately priced restaurants located in central Fairfax County. Before each Forum he confers with the management of that month's chosen location and makes reservations for the 20 to 30 members who regularly attend.

All the folks involved in the staging of this monthly event are to be commended for its consistent high quality and conviviality. Show them your appreciation at next month's Forum.

10th Anniversary Picnic: An Oklahoma Sequel

If you thought about it, LLI's Tenth Anniversary Picnic was a throwback to Rogers' and Hammerstein's Oklahoma, the musical everybody wanted to see after WW2. Hammerstein's lyrics in "The Farmer and the Cowman Should Be Friends" previewed the cool but sunny celebration of dining and dancing: "Cowboys dance with farmers' daughters; farmers dance with ranchers' gals."

Creative decorating by energetic volunteers transformed the huge Ft. Hunt pavilion into a Western Harvest Celebration with bales of hay, pumpkins, ten foot corn stalk clusters, and an overseeing scarecrow. Cowboy boots, 10-gallon hats, jeans and bandannas, spurs and lariats were surrounded by numerous "Most Wanted" posters. A catered barbecue buffet and homemade salads provided by loyal members were followed by double deck layer cake with ice cream.

The second of three anniversary events celebrating LLI's 10th year, the picnic attracted even more registrations than the Greenspring Luncheon. Dr. Richard Ernst, the NVCC president who gave the green light to Knox Singleton to make LLI a reality ten years ago, was unable to attend. After a six year wait, the Ernsts were joining other LLI residents at Greenspring the day of the picnic.

Decorations — Janet Goodrich, Arlene Gribben, Colletta Hammond, Trudy Hynes, Salli Wise, Sally Reynolds

Food and Beverage — Virginia Edgell, Bonnie Hopley, Bob Huley, Ed Kazanowski, Martie Klee, Betty Mahon, John McClanahan and Liddell McLeod

Registration — Martha Siemering & friends

Program — Marie Baglio, Dick DiBuono (Picnic Committee Chair), Norma Hughes, Chuck Klee (acting Chair), Liddell McLeod and Don Reynolds

Photography — Marianne Moerman

Set up / Cleanup — Lorin Goodrich, Paul Hoper, Bonnie Hopley, Chuck Klee, Marianne Moerman, Joan Pirrello, Leah Porzel, and Betty Lee Thatcher

And as Hammerstein continued in Oklahoma: "One man likes to push a plow; the other likes to chase a cow." We had them both — cowboys (girls) and ranchers...Don Reynolds

Pictures from the picnic can be seen online at <http://groups.msn.com/LLINOVA/2006picnic>.

Autumn sunshine accompanied by cool breezes from the Potomac lured many of the picnickers to tables outside of the large pavilion. A program of line dancing followed by the LLI Non-Singers brought them back in to dance, listen and sing. The program ended with a harvest of groceries supplied for door prizes by Safeway Stores and Trader Joe's. The 10th Anniversary Committee promised more grocery door prizes for the Holiday Party in December.

Norma Hughes recognized, Don Reynolds, 10th Anniversary Committee Chair, an expressed appreciation to all the volunteers who made the event a success.

Special Interest Groups

Favorite Books Club

On November 16 the group will discuss a mystery entitled Dreaming of the Bones by Deborah Crombie. This book is part of an English procedural series set among Cambridge literary types and featuring the fictional Scotland Yard's Superintendent Duncan Kincaid. The main characters sift through a tangle of relationships, secrets, and lies to find not just a killer but a secret which will change their own lives forever.

Sounds intriguing and fun? Join us at the Mason District Governmental Center, 6507 Columbia Pike, Annandale, 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. You do not need to sign up to attend. If you have any questions, call Arlene Gribben at 703-569-0357 or send e-mail to arlenegribb@aol.com.

Gourmand Group

Bonnie Hopley arranged for two Gourmand events in October. Nine members feasted on catered hors d'oeuvres from Ridgewell's at Bonnie and Paul's home on October 4. On October 10 Bonnie arranged for nine Gourmands to have a docent-led tour of the National Museum of Women in the Arts. Following the tour we had lunch in their Mezzanine Café.

Virginia Edgell made arrangements for the November event at the Mount Vernon Inn. Deanna deMember has scheduled the December 5 outing at Dolce Vita in Fairfax. Those wishing to lunch at Dolce Vita should contact Deanna. Jeanne Downey is planning the luncheon in January and Becky Perry, February.

Arts and Smarts

Our first museum excursion to the National Portrait Gallery was a great success and enjoyed by all. The overview of both the Portrait Gallery and the Museum of American Art was an excellent enticement for many returns to these wonderful galleries. Looking forward through the end of 2006, we have two more programs: October 23 we go to the East Building of the National Gallery of Art for the Constable Exhibition; November 17 we tour the Freer/Sackler Galleries. There will not be a museum visit in December. For information contact Donna Trogler at 703-751-8932 or DTrogler@aol.com.

LLI Current Events Group (formerly the Discussion Group)

Date: Friday, November 3, 2006
Place: Mason District Center
Time: 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.
Topic: Election 2006

What are the primary issues, in your opinion, that will influence the election Tuesday? What should be the key area for action in the incoming Congress?

Our goal is a diverse discussion with equal participation by all who wish to speak. After about an hour on the topic, we will have an open forum on current events of interest to anyone in the group after choosing the next topic. Meetings are open to anyone who wants to participate or learn more about current events.

For more information, e-mail Shirley Lotz at svlotz@cox.net or call her at (703) 978-2977.

Bridge Group

In November, the LLI Bridge Group will meet only once: Wednesday, November 8, at the Mason District Governmental Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (bring a bag lunch). Please call Bob or Gladys Bucklew, Chairpersons, at 703-631-7889 any date you wish to attend to afford us the opportunity to obtain sufficient card tables for attendees. All are welcome. Note that if there are "extra" people, Bridge play is rotated (four hands per game) among all present. Also, most of our players are "singles"; you do not need a partner to attend. We hope you can join us!

Walkabouts

"Walkabouts" is the new name of the recently established LLI walking group. While the group is a work in progress, to date we have agreed to schedule a walk outdoors every other week. Most walks will last about one hour. Light rain or snow will not cancel a walk. On a rotating basis, someone from the group volunteers to lead each walk. Scheduling is a work in progress. By the end of each walk, we attempt to have the next two walks scheduled. Scheduling is a work in progress. For now we see weekdays from noon to 1:00 as the time with the least conflicts. Plans will be announced at the Forums, printed in the monthly newsletters, and posted on the LLI Web site. (To receive email notification, send your email address to liddell\_mcl@cox.net.)
