

Protecting the Wilderness for the Future

Our summer break is over...the Fall 2002 course catalogue has been mailed and the monthly Forum meetings are starting again. On Monday, September 9, Jerry Greenberg, Vice President for Communications at The Wilderness Society, will talk about his organization's accomplishments during its 60 years-plus existence and its current campaigns. There are many important issues that concern all of us, such as environmental threats to the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge, other national refuges, many of our famous natural monuments, and national forests. Come and find out how we all can be a part of this important effort.

As usual, we will meet in the Forum room at the Cultural Center on NVCC's Annandale campus. Refreshments start at 9:30 a.m.; Mr. Greenberg will speak shortly after 10 o'clock. This is the meeting at which you can register for fall courses if you have not already done so. Parking is available in the Cultural Center lot – look for LLI's signs.

Tenth Anniversary Plans Are Underway – We Need Your Help

It doesn't seem possible that we will be celebrating our 10th anniversary in less than three years. Plans have been set in motion to commemorate this seminal achievement. Don Reynolds, LLI's historian and one of its publicists, has begun to prepare a visual display to highlight the evolution of our programs. With Memphis Norman's support, Don gave the Board a preview at its July planning meeting. It is an exciting beginning, and at this point we need your help in two areas: (1) to take photos at some of the classes this Fall, particularly the ones with NVCC faculty, and (2) for those of you who have promotional experience please call Don at 703-352-7494 (e-mail: saldonreyn@aol.com) to help out on a small committee. Members who have worked on an organization's anniversary celebration are especially

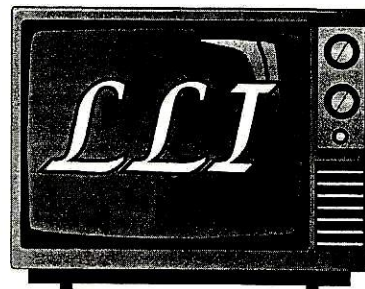

The Lunch Bunch

Following the September 9 Forum, we will meet at the China Star Restaurant at 9600G Main Street in Fairfax (tel. 703-323-8822). The restaurant is very conveniently located a little over a mile from NVCC on Little River Turnpike in the Fair City Mall, two doors from Kinko's Copy Center, facing Rt. 236. The restaurant is rather new, has three buffet bars with tasty food plus a regular menu, and has been recommended by several of John Bogart's friends who have eaten there. The food is reasonably priced, the buffet is replenished frequently, and the food quality is very good (no alcohol is served). Directions: after leaving NOVA proceed west on Rt. 236 toward Fairfax City, pass Pickett Road and take a right into the mall area.

needed. We must get started now for this event to be educationally and socially memorable.

LLI on TV

Tune into Fairfax County's Public Access Channel 10 program, "NARFE

PRESENTS," September 9 at 6:30 p.m., September 10 at 9:00 a.m., or September 12 at 2:00 p.m. to see our vice president, Richard Risk, talk about the benefits of belonging to LLI. Richard is representing us on a telecast about continuing education opportunities. Thank you, Richard.

LLI Board Meets for Fifth Annual Planning Retreat

LLI's Board of Directors, joined by Knox Singleton, President Emeritus; Laura Charron, Administrator; Martie Klee, Volunteer Coordinator and EIN Liaison; and Louise Souk, Trip Committee chair, met for an all-day planning retreat at Greenspring Village on July 18, 2002. President Lorin Goodrich conducted the meeting. Following is a summary of the topics discussed:

Operations

Lorin indicated that several areas need additional staffing:

- Membership: Gladys Keating and Mary Davis have agreed to help with membership functions.
- Assistant Treasurer: George Pearsall will serve in this capacity.
- Forum logistics: Lorin needs help with logistics for the monthly Forum meetings.
- Photographers are needed to supplement the efforts of Don Reynolds and Phil Waggener.
- Teachers: we need recommendations for teachers for new classes.

Volunteer Activities

- Martie Klee distributed samples of three different forms of member surveys for Board comment. A survey form is helpful in ascertaining where members' interests lie, both for class topics and for volunteering.
- There was some discussion of the ways to use volunteers and how to inform members of volunteer opportunities.

Nominating Committee

The Board agreed that the Committee should be appointed in January to allow sufficient time for selection of a slate and appropriate introduction of the nominees at a Forum meeting prior to the June Annual Meeting.

Strategic Planning and Mission

- Memphis Norman indicated that activities are on track against our strategic plan goals. Attendance at the monthly Forums averaged 153 per meeting for the year. New gains include: establishment of LLI's library and the involvement of more NVCC faculty in teaching courses. LLI's programs are of high quality, and the special interest groups offer timely and interesting topics.
- Knox Singleton expressed appreciation for LLI's efforts to encourage interest in classes focusing on Vital Aging; several topics in this category were suggested for future course offerings.

Financial Condition; Insurance

- Warren Hynes reviewed the FY 2002 financial report, and indicated that LLI is very healthy financially. Richard Risk presented the budget, which has a small surplus. The Budget Committee will meet in August to review actual expenses and decide how to budget the surplus. The Committee also will prepare a Rainy Day Fund plan for presentation to the Board.
- John Manion shared information he had obtained from four companies on Directors and Officers Insurance. Alan Mayer and Gladys Keating volunteered to research Virginia legislation relating to suits against volunteer organizations, and Martie Klee will check with EIN for any information they may have. A decision about increasing or changing our current coverage will be made at the September 13 Board meeting.

Membership

Laura Charron reported that our membership currently stands at 315. She indicated that most renewals come due in August and September, and new memberships balance out non-renewals.

Trips and Tours

- Louise Souk advised that, overall, our trips have made money. The Board unanimously approved two motions for two overnight trips for 2003: to Myrtle Beach, SC, April 28-May 2; to New York City in October.
- The Study/Travel group will hold its first meeting of the Fall session on September 18, 2002 to plan for its next sojourn.

Academic Program

- Doris Balinsky briefly reviewed the Fall 2002 program, which has a wide variety of courses that will be easier to read in the catalogue: the course number will be preceded by the last number of the current year and the corresponding session (e.g., F for Fall, etc.) The number will be followed by an "A" or "P" (for a.m. or p.m.), and the description will allow members to see date, time, location, and leader at a glance.

- Several courses already have been identified for the Spring session, and Doris indicated there will be an effort to find more instructors for science classes.
- Two volunteers, Norma Hughes and Jack Wyatt, edited the Fall catalogue, and Norma will assume the Program Committee chair responsibilities for the Summer 2003 session.
- It was suggested that the Fall 2003 classes start in mid-September, rather than at the end of the month.
- John Manion and Gordon Hamlet will be responsible for reserving spaces for classes.

Special Events

Virginia Fernbach reported on special events held during the past year. While the May appreciation reception was very successful, a large number of members made reservations but failed to attend, resulting in a waste of money since more food was catered than was needed. It was agreed that a notice would be placed in the newsletter asking members to honor their reservations or call to cancel.

Outreach

- Martie Klee indicated that the Elderhostel Institute Network (EIN) has dropped its dues requirement, thus saving LLI $600/year.
- LLI will have an information table at the September 17 Health and Wellness event being held at The Virginian.
- Alan Mayer hopes to meet with NVCC's Provost in August to discuss scholarships.
- Don Reynolds and Memphis Norman previewed a slide program on LLI's history that is being developed for our tenth anniversary in 2006.

During the retreat wrap-up it was very gratifying to hear Knox express his amazement at and delight in LLI's progress from its inception to the present.

Electronic Communication Is Here To Stay!

LLI continues to depend on electronics to communicate whenever possible. Have you visited our web site lately (<http://communities.msn.com/LLINOVA>)? It contains a wealth of information. You can also go through the college's web site to find us (www.nvcc.vccs.edu). To reach LLI by e-mail, please use the address llinova@juno.com, not the "hotmail" address since we are no longer using that Internet service. Also, please let us know whenever your e-mail address changes, or you obtain one for the first time.

New President for NVCC

Robert F. Templin, Jr., a former President of Virginia's Center for Innovative Technology, and a senior fellow at the Morino Institute in Reston, recently was named President of NVCC, filling the slot vacated when Belle S. Wheelan left the campus to become Virginia's Secretary of Education. Mr. Templin assumes his duties on August 27, 2002.

LLI's Summer Picnic — Another Success Story!

The challenging heat on August 11 did not deter sixty LLI members and six guests from enjoying a great selection of salads, entrees, fruit, and enticing desserts – never mind the ever-tempting grilled hotdogs. Thanks for planning and organizing this annual event goes, in particular, to Marie Baglio, who was involved in all aspects including the purchase of food, setup, as well as the end-all details, and to Laura Charron, Virginia Fernbach, Lorin Goodrich, and Diane Ignatowski. Thanks also to the onsite Picnic Team: Diane and her husband, Len; Victoria Blackman; Tom and Marie Buchanan; Bo Kelly; Sally Pfeiffer; Betty and Bob Spatz; Virginia and Lorin. To the others who pitched in to help, we apologize that we didn't get your names, but we appreciate your efforts. The rock group, which was to have been Jazz selections, received mixed reactions but, nonetheless, it was a most enjoyable event.

President's Corner

I am honored that the Board of Directors has asked me to serve as your president for another year. It is indeed a pleasure to work with so many people who like to pursue learning while having fun. Ralph Waldo Emerson once said "institutions are merely lengthened shadows of people." LLI casts a long shadow because of its committed membership and passion for education. Your newly constituted Board of Directors has been busy this summer taking stock and planning for the future. We had a productive all-day planning retreat in July (see article on page 2).

Your Directors are a catalyst for making membership in LLI an enriching experience. However, the efforts of many other members are needed to successfully operate such a wide array of programs. So many of our members willingly contribute their time and talents; some of them are shown on the "organization chart" enclosed in the newsletter. A majority of the members who have served in coordinating roles are continuing. In addition to the new Board members assuming various assignments there are changes in certain key areas:

- Tom Buchanan has asked to be relieved of his duties as Discussion Group coordinator. Thank you, Tom, for your many contributions during the past three years! Sue Swift will succeed Tom beginning with the Group's October meeting, and Gladys and Bob Bucklew will coordinate the meetings whenever Sue is away.
- Fern and Bob Beyer are heading up a committee to arrange for speakers at the monthly Forum meetings. They welcome your ideas. The Beyers took on this assignment in June following a highly successful series of speakers arranged by Ted Krivoruchka. Ted, thanks very much!
- A new Special Interest Group is starting this Fall – "Spanish Conversation and Discussion." This is an outgrowth of Judith Diaz's summer course. Many thanks, Judith, for continuing to contribute your time. Incidentally, two more Special Interest Groups are in the planning stage: Jazz Appreciation, emanating from Irv Drill's excellent summer course, and a Favorite Books Club. Stay tuned for further details.

LLI is flourishing as it enters its seventh year. You can be assured that your leadership is continuing to focus on keeping the Institute's offerings fresh and stimulating. Your ideas and participation are always welcome.

See you on September 9!

Information on Fall Courses

Amended Directions to classes — change in exit numbers: Some time ago the Department of Transportation changed the numbers of the exit ramps from the Beltway. Please note: for Greenspring Village, the correct exit number is Exit 57 (old Exit 4); also, Old Keene Mill Drive should be Old Keene Mill Road. For the Wild Bird Center on Duke Street, Exit 2B is now Exit 176.

Course 2F09P — change in start date: Course 2F09P, American Colonial History, will start October 8 (not October 1) and will consist of only 7 sessions.

Study/Travel VIII: Even if you haven't registered for this course, but are interested in joining, please feel free to attend. Meetings are scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Wednesdays, September 18 and 25, and Thursday, October 3 in Room 3, Chapel Square Center.

Advance Reading for the "First Ladies" Course: For those members who plan to take Course 2F03P, "First Ladies of the U.S. — From Jackie Kennedy to Laura Bush," your enjoyment may be enhanced by doing some background reading. Recommended are two books by Gil Troy: Affairs of State: The Rise and Rejection of the Presidential Couple Since World War II (1997), and Mr. and Mrs. President from The Trumans to The Clintons (2000); and Hidden Power (2001) by Kati Marton. Instructor, Mary O'Day, will have a longer list available during the course, but these three books might peak your interest.

A Few Spaces Left for LLI's October Trip: There are a few spaces left for the October 16-18 trip to SW Virginia. We will visit Woodrow Wilson's Birthplace and the Museum of American Frontier Culture in Staunton, the D-Day Memorial in Bedford, Peaks of Otter, Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest near Lynchburg, and tour and have lunch in the Historic District of Lynchburg. Deadline for reservation/payment has been extended to September 10. For more information please call Martie Klee at (703) 644-4931 or e-mail marthaklee@earthlink.net

Attendance Commitment

If you sign up, please show up — for a class, a trip, or an event. If your plans change and you can't attend, please have the courtesy to call the instructor or the trip/event coordinator and let them know you can't make it.

Call Cheryl Harlan at (703) 255-7801 if you want to know more about the exercise level. The cost is $40 for Vienna town residents and $50 for all other registrants. To register, send your name, address, phone number, together with a check made payable to Vienna Community Center, to the Center at 120 Cherry Street, Vienna, VA 22180. Please indicate on the check that you are registering for course 242475A, Gentle Yoga.

Fairfax Symphony Discount for LLI Members

The Fairfax Symphony (FSO) is offering LLI members a 20% discount for its 2002-2003 season (single performance or season subscription). The costs range from $14 to $32 for a single-performance ticket, and from $79 to $199 for all seven performances during the season.

The FSO performs in the Concert Hall at George Mason University's Center for the Arts. The first concert is on September 21 featuring pianist Santiago Rodriguez. Remaining performances will take place on October 19, November 16, December 14, January 18, March 15, and April 19. Call FSO's office at 703-642-7200 for details. Be sure to tell them that you are a member of the Lifetime Learning Institute to obtain the discount.

Membership Renewal Reminder

Please check the mailing label on this newsletter for your membership renewal date; a great many expire at the end of August. You must renew in order to register for Fall 2002 courses, which start September 16, and to participate in LLI's many other activities. The form appearing on page 33 or 35 of the "Fall 2002 Program" course catalogue should be mailed to the LLI office with a check in the amount of $100 for each person wishing to continue with LLI.

Note: If you paid your dues after August 10, 2002, the renewal date on the mailing label will not reflect the new expiration date.

Social Security eNews

Keep Track of Your Social Security Paydays

If you're getting Social Security or Supplemental Security Income benefits, you probably know when to expect your next payment. But, what if the date falls on a holiday or weekend? You'll never have to guess again, and you won't have to call to find out if you use our handy payment calendar. The calendar shows all payment dates for 2002, and it's color-coded to make it easy for you to find your payday at a glance. It's a perfect reference to print out and keep on hand. Why not take a look now? <http://www.ssa.gov/pubs/2002calendar.htm>

Advice for Victims of Identity Theft

In the March issue of eNews, we told you about identity thieves and how they can use your Social Security number for their personal gain. We suggested ways to protect your personal information, including your Social Security number. But if you do become a victim of identity theft, there are ways to recover your good credit rating. Report it to the Federal Trade Commission's ID Theft Hotline, 1-877-IDTHEFT. You also should contact the three major credit bureaus, tell them you're an identity theft victim, and ask them to place a fraud alert on your record. The credit bureaus are:

— Equifax: 1-800-525-6285 or <http://www.equifax.com>

— Trans Union: 1-800-680-7289 or <http://www.tuc.com>

— Experian: 1-888-397-3742 or <http://www.experian.com>

Also, write your creditors and ask them to contact you before opening any new accounts in your name or changing existing accounts or credit limits. For more information on identity theft, visit our identity theft page. Http://www.ssa.gov/pubs/idtheft.htm
